

M'bira

Made in Zimbabwe, this small hand held thumb piano is sometimes called the 'travellers friend' as it is light, easy to carry and can be played whilst wandering from place to place. The m'bira is played with both thumbs.

People in Africa love to make music!

It forms part of their basic everyday life. They have strong traditions with music, dance and song both spiritual and ritual. Buying this helps to maintain local crafts and traditions.

